

Business & Statistics

Randice Nelson

Dec 2-6

Consumer Economic Systems: Economics is not only about money or goods and services, it is about people. This presentation addresses how people affect and are affected by economics. The presentation introduces some basic economic terms and analyzes economic decision making, family economics, and impacts on the economy.

M	Objectives: 1. To identify economic terms and concepts involved in consumer economic systems. 2. To assess different ways individuals and consumers participate in the economic system. 3. To determine involvement of various legislation, agencies and industries on consumer economic systems.	(5) The student examines economic systems. The student is expected to: (C) understand the rights and responsibilities of consumers within various economic systems (i) understand the rights of consumers within various economic systems (ii) understand the responsibilities of consumers within various economic systems (7) The student discusses economic indicators impacting personal financial decision making. The student is expected to: (B) analyze the impact of a nation's unemployment rates (i) analyze the impact of	Consumer Economic Systems Crossword. Administer the Consumer Economic Systems Final Assessment. Allow students to finish and turn in their projects.
T			Consumer Economic Systems Crossword. Administer the Consumer Economic Systems Final Assessment. Allow students to finish and turn in their projects.
W			Consumer Debate Teacher Instruction Sheet - Allow time between group presentations for class discussion.
Th			STATS Poster- Students will create a survey and conduct research on what interests them. They must get at least a total of 10 surveys. Students will then create a poster about the research and data they collected.
F			STATS Poster- Students will create a survey and conduct research on what interests them. They must get at least a total of 10 surveys. Students will then create a poster about the research and data they collected.