

Career Prep

Randice Nelson

Feb. 17-21

M		No School
T		Introduction to Career Ethics Objective: Students will understand what workplace ethics are and why they matter. Activities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Discussion: Define ethics and discuss why they are important in the workplace. • Case Study: Analyze real-world ethical dilemmas in various industries. • Reflection: Students write about a time they faced an ethical decision.
W		Ethical Decision-Making Objective: Students will learn how to approach ethical dilemmas using decision-making models. Activities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ethical Decision Model: Introduce frameworks like the "5-Step Ethical Decision-Making Process." • Group Discussion: Students debate different perspectives on ethical issues.
TH		Workplace Integrity & Honesty Objective: Teach the value of honesty, transparency, and integrity in professional settings. Activities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Video Analysis: Watch a short clip about honesty at work and discuss. • Journal Reflection: Write about a time when honesty (or dishonesty) impacted their work/school experience.
F		Ethics in Digital & Social Media Use Objective: Understand ethical use of social media, digital privacy, and professionalism online. Activities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Case Studies: Discuss real-world examples of employees getting fired for social media posts.

Career Prep
Randice Nelson

		<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Dos and Don'ts Chart: Students create a workplace social media guide.