

Business Management

Randice Nelson

Feb. 24-28

Goal: To examine various aspects of business which can lead to successful business operations

Description: This presentation will show different areas of a business which are key to being successful. Students will learn how good employee training and imitating the best practices of others can lead to a better company. Lastly, students are able to see how proper goal setting and achievement can help a business attain success in the long run.

M	Objectives: 1.To analyze the operations of successful business. 2.To identify basic business procedures. 3.To discuss various aspects of maintaining a successful business.		Begin New Unit: Successful Business Operations Show Successful Business Operations - Leadership & Planning and complete the corresponding Assessment. Slides 1 -17
T			Introduce the Successful Business Element Project and allow students to begin.
W			Show Successful Business Operations - Management and complete the corresponding Assessment. Slides 18 - 31
TH			Show slides 32 to 51 of the Successful Business Operations - Employees & Types of Businesses segment. Hand out the Compensation Activity and allow students to work. Slisodes 32 - 51
F			Gmetrix